OVERVIEW

The conference will be held by videoconference including short presentations on the challenges to the profession as a result of the pandemic and support measures to help them in various regions of the world. The aim is to have a round table session / fluid conversation, without technical or scientific presentations. Considering the multiplicity of perspectives that FCM members can give to the session, the idea would be for each speaker to talk about the pandemic's influence on accounting / auditing and how his association/federation is helping their members to act on behalf of their clients, stressing the fundamental role they played and play in the survival of companies and the global economy.
